Senatûs decreta, sive gratiæ.

De oppugnatoribus ecclesiæ Anglicanæ.

PLaceat vobis, ut quicunque doctrinam vel disciplinam ecclesiæ Anglicanæ, vel ejus partem aliquam legibus publicis stabilitam, scriptis, vel dictis, vel quocunque modo in academiâ Cantabrigiæ oppugnaverit, ab omni gradu suscipiendo excludatur, et à suscepto suspendatur ipso facto. An. 1603.

Computus terminorum bac. ad bapt. unde faciendus.

PLaceat vobis, ut omnes ii, quibus post ultimum actum, et ante decimum quartum januarii vestra dignitas admissionem ad respondendum quæstioni in posterum concesserit, virtute juramenti academiæ præstiti obstringantur, se, cum gradum magisterii ambiant, terminorum computum facturos non ab eâ admissione, sed à finali determinatione admissionem subsequenti. 1628.

De

De falsò prætendentibus procuratoriam potestatem.

1640. CUM nonnulli nuper procuratorum autoritatem ementiti, communem pacem turbaverint: placeat vobis, ut quicunque in posterum falsam et indebitam procuratorii muneris dignitatem vel potestatem sibi arrogaverint, sub eoque prætextu Cantabrigiensem villam, aut aliquam ejus partem pervagati fuerint, cujusque ædes vexaverint, oppidanos, academicos, sive etiam peregrinos, injuriâ, contumeliâ, vel damno affecerint; sine ullâ cunctatione carceri per quatuordecim dies includantur; neque inde prius liberentur quam quadraginta solidos pro admisso facinore in manus procancellarii deposuerint ad usum communis cistæ applicandos. quod si qui eo temeritatis ac petulantiæ processerint, ut semel in hoc flagitio deprehensi, in idem iterum impingant; decreti hujus vestri autoritate ab academiâ amoveantur protinus, et expellantur ipso facto.

De candidatorum comessationibus.

1647. CUM candidati post disputationes in scholis privatas et majoribus nostris penitus ignotas invitationes induxerint, ad grandem academiæ infamiam et gravissimas expensas et damnum eorum qui summo labore suo et curâ studiosos alunt; placet vobis, ut (ad querelam hanc adversus academiæ disciplinam auferendam) omnes inceptores et quæstioniste deinceps futuri ab omnibus hujusmodi invitationibus, comessationibus et conventibus abstineant. nominatim, ut disputantes non audeant vel invitare, vel hujusmodi invitationes cujuscunque rogatu acceptare, aut comessationibus ejusmodi interesse, et si qui in isto genere delinquant, ut habeantur infames propter luxuriam et inobedientiam: et ut ad arbitrium domini procancellarii pro tempore existentis, vel viginti solidis in usum cistæ communis mulctentur; vel ab eo gradu quem habent suspensionem incurrant, atque infra annum illum in quo deliquerint nullam gratiam neque gradum in academiâ obtineant.

De

De quæſtioniſtarum & ſophiſtarum diſputationibus in termino quadrageſimali.

CUM quæſtioniſtarum et ſophiſtarum diſputationes in termino quadrageſimali peragendæ hactenus vel penitus neglectæ fuerint vel perfunctoriè præſtitæ, in juventutis academicæ damnum et contra mentem ſtatuti; placeat vobis, ut dicta exercitia tam quæſtioniſtarum in quadrageſimâ ſtantium, quam ſophiſtarum, iiſdem diebus et eâdem formâ habeantur prout in terminis poſt paſcha et feſtum ſancti Michaelis: cumque inſuper neceſſe ſit ut prædictis diſputationibus præſint moderatores; placeat vobis, ut eiſdem moderatoribus ſtipendium (uti in aliis terminis) è communi ciſtâ aſſignetur, et ut quilibet in poſterum in magiſtrorum vel baccalaureorum artium ordinem cooptandus duos ſolidos huic uſui impendendos ciſtæ communi perſolvere teneatur. 1731.

De iis qui ſepultorum cadavera ſurripiunt è cœmeteriis.

CUM ſepultorum cadavera è cœmeteriis ſæpius furtim ſurrepta fuerint ad gravem plurimorum offenſionem; placeat vobis, ut quiſquis in poſterum è cœmeterio cadaver aliquod ſurripuerit, vel ita ſurreptum celaverit infra limites academiæ, poſtquam legitimè convictus fuerit coram procancellario, ſi ſcholaris ſit nondum graduatus, ſuſpendatur à gradu capeſſendo per biennium ultra conſuetum tempus, ſi vero ſit graduatus, gradu ſuo privetur; ſin ſcholarium gaudeat privilegio, in perpetuum privilegium ſuum amittat. 1732.

De migrantibus ab uno collegio in aliud.

PLaceat vobis, ut ſi quiſquam ſcholaris infra gradum magiſtri in artibus tranſtulerit ſe ab alio collegio in aliud, niſi prius impetratis literis ſub chirographo magiſtri collegii, decani et prælectoris, teſtantibus de honeſtâ ſuâ et laudabili converſatione, preſolvere teneatur quinque libras collegio à quo ſeceſſerit, et quinque libras communi ciſtæ academiæ. 1732.

De gratiis pro gradibus rejectis.

1733. AD præcavendam omnem infamiam, quam academia pati poteſt, ſi temerè gradus immerentibus conferantur; placeat vobis, ut ſi quis in poſterum petat à vobis gradum aliquem, poſtquam ejuſdem ſupplicatio ſuffragiis veſtris fuerit rejecta; præfecto uniuſcujuſque collegii, aut ejus vices gerenti intentionem ſuam ſupplicandi pridiè congregationis, in quâ ſupplicaturus eſt, in ſcriptis notam faciat. quod, ſi omiſſum fuerit, omnis ad gradum aditus pro hâc vice præcludatur.

De baccalaureorum diſputationibus et declamationibus.

1748. CUM baccalaureorum in artibus tum diſputationes tum declamationes, horis matutinis et nullo fere audiente jam diu peractæ, tandem neglectæ videantur, et contemptui ferè habitæ; placeat vobis, quo hiſce exercitationibus ſuus conſtet honos, ut in tempus pomeridianum in poſterum differantur: ita ut quolibet die veneris intra terminos poſt paſcha et feſtum ſancti michaelis, omiſſis ſophiſtarum diſputationibus, diſputent baccalaurei artium ab horâ primâ ad tertiam; quolibet vero die ſaturni eâdem horâ iidem declament.

Inter-

Interpretations and decrees of the vice-chancellor and heads of colleges.

Of matriculation, and the time for proceeding bachelor of arts.

ALL perſons proceeding to the degree of bachelor of arts ſhall be tried and judged by the books of matriculation, whether they have accompliſhed the years and terms required by the ſtatutes of the univerſity to that degree. An. 1578.

All perſons admitted as ſtudents in any college ſhall within ſix days repair to the regiſter, and cauſe their names to be enrolled; and then at the next matriculation take their oath. and no perſon 'till he be thus inrolled ſhall be reputed as a ſcholar, nor his time or years be accounted as available toward the taking the degree aforeſaid: and the tutor of ſuch perſon ſhall forfeit to the uſe of the univerſity 6*s.* 8*d.*

All perſons ſo inrolled as aforeſaid, at or upon the day next before the beginning of Eaſter-term ſhall be reputed to have fully ſatisfied the ſtatute cap. 6. Eliz. requiring completum quadriennium for a bachelor of arts degree, [a] if they proceed to it the 4th Lent next following ſuch inrolment.

Of compounders.

IT is interpreted and determined by the vice-chancellor and heads, that every perſon whoſe living or livings eccleſiaſtical, of what kind ſoever, ſhall be rated to the yearly value of 40 marks in the book of firſt-fruits or ſubſidy, or whoſe living temporal hath been, is, or ſhall be demiſed communibus annis at that rate or rent, or that ſhall be by common eſtimation accounted to be yearly worth the ſaid ſum of 40 marks, ſhall be reputed and taken as a compounder. and this ſhall comprehend all thoſe, which before their admiſſion or creation ſhall have preſentation, collation, inſtitution, 1599.

induction, or any manner of poſſeſſion of any kind of living to the value of 40 marks in manner and form aforeſaid. [a] Againſt diſorders in publick aſſemblies.

1606. FOR preventing of any future diſorders in any publick aſſembly in the univerſity, it is upon good conſideration and reſolution ordered and decreed by Mr. vice-chancellor, and the heads of the colleges, that whoſoever ſhall hereafter be found in any publick aſſembly to commit any offenſive and riotous action, or to be a partaker, counſeller, or inciter thereof, ſhall (if he be convicted to be a principal offender before Mr. vice-chancellor and the more of the heads then at home) be baniſhed the univerſity. if offending in lower degree, (then being graduates) they ſhall be ſuſpended their degree, ſo to continue at the diſcretion of Mr. vice-chancellor, and alſo be ſtayed for one whole year from taking further degree, when their time for the ſame ſhall come. but if ſuch offenders ſhall be non-graduates, they ſhall make ſome open confeſſion of their fault in the ſchools, in the preſence of ſuch as Mr. vice-chancellor ſhall call. and nevertheleſs ſhall be made incapable, for one whole year, of their expected degree, when the time cometh.

Againſt ſhooting, courſing, and keeping greyhounds.

1606. IT is ordered and decreed by the vice-chancellor and heads of colleges, that if any ſcholars or ſtudents ſhall ſhoot in guns or croſs-bows, either within the limits of the univerſity or without, or ſhall keep by themſelves or others any greyhounds, or ſhall be found in the field with greyhounds, guns, or croſs-bows; every ſcholar ſo offending, upon conviction ſhall incur reſpectively according to the degrees of his offence the ſeveral penalties ſpecified in the foregoing orders for the diſturbers of publick aſſemblies.

Againſt

[a] See pag. 17.

Againſt exceſſive drinking and drunkenneſs.

IT is decreed by Mr. vice-chancellor and the heads of colleges, upon interpretation of a part of the ſtatute de modeſtia etc. [a] that whatſoever ſcholar or ſtudent ſhall hereafter be convicted of exceſſive drinking, drunkenneſs, or making others drunk, eſpecially in the night-time, in tavern, inn, or victualling-houſe, of what condition or degree ſoever he be, if he ſhall be convicted before Mr. vice-chancellor and the more part of the heads of colleges then at home to be an offender in any of the premiſes, ſhall with their conſent be baniſhed the univerſity; and be degraded, if he be a graduate. others, found faulty in a leſſer degree, ſhall, if graduates, be degraded by Mr. vice-chancellor during pleaſure, and alſo be ſtayed for one whole year from taking their farther degree at their time: if non-graduates, they ſhall be made incapable for one whole year of their degree, when their time cometh, and alſo be enjoined by Mr. vice-chancellor to declaim openly in the ſchools againſt that abuſe. 1607.

De tollendis ineptiis in publicis diſputationibus.

CUM ſtatutis academiæ cautum ſit, ut modeſtiam ordini ſuo convenientem omnes omnibus in locis colant: [a] eamque majores noſtri præcipuè in publicis comitiis ita obſervârunt, ut philoſophi quæſtiones ſuas tractarent ſeriò, prævaricatores veritatem philoſophicam quâ poterant contradicendi ſubtilitate eluderent, tripodes ſua quæſita ingeniosè et appoſitè defenderent, geſtibus autem hiſtrionicis, flagitioſis facetiis et ineptiis pueriles riſus captare nuperrimi ſæculi malitioſum ſit inventum: ad antiquam academiæ modeſtiam et gravitatem reſtaurandam et in poſterum retinendam, dominus pro-cancellarius et præpoſiti collegiorum ſic prædictum ſtatutum interpretantur, et interpretando decernunt; ut prævaricatores, tripodes, aliique omnes diſputantes veterem academiæ formam et conſuetudinem in publicis diſputationibus obſervent, et ab hoc ridiculo morionum uſu et impudentiâ 1626.

pudentiâ prorſus abſtineant: neque leges, ſtatuta vel ordinationes academiæ; neque facultatum, linguarum, aut artium profeſſiones; neque magiſtratus, profeſſores, aut graduatos cujuſcunque tituli aut nominis, ſalutationibus mimicis, geſticulationibus ridiculis, jocis ſcurrilibus, dicteriis malitioſis perſtringere aut illudere præſumant. quod ſi quis decretum hoc violaverit, ipſo facto per dominum pro-cancellarium ab omni gradu ſuſcepto ſuſpendatur, aut incarceretur. et ſi indignitas facti majorem pœnam merito poſtulaverit, per dominum pro-cancellarium unà cum aſſenſu majoris partis præpoſitorum collegiorum ab univerſitate expellatur.

Scholars not to go into houſes of ill fame.

1675. IT is ordered and agreed by the vice-chancellor and heads of colleges, that hereafter no ſcholar whatſoever (except officers of the univerſity performing their duty in ſearching houſes) upon any pretence whatſoever, ſhall go into any houſe of bad report in Barnwell on pain for his miſbehaviour and contumacy of being expelled the univerſity.

Of ſophs treats and exerciſes.

1680. IT is agreed and determined by the vice-chancellor and heads of colleges, that if any one ſhall give or accept of any treat, gloves, or other preſent at any time upon account of performing exerciſe in the ſophiſters ſchools, he ſhall be ſtopped from taking the degree of bachelor of arts for one whole year after ſuch offence. and likewiſe, that the ſame puniſhment ſhall be inflicted upon thoſe who ſhall obſtinately neglect to perform ſuch exerciſes as are required of them by the proctor.

For reſidence of ſtudents in arts.

1681. WHereas there have been formerly ſeveral orders and decrees made, to oblige young ſcholars to conſtant reſidence in the univerſity, till they have taken taken their firſt degree at leaſt, which have of late years been quite neglected, to the great diſadvantage of the ſcholars themſelves, as well as the diſhonour of the univerſity; It was the day and year above-written, reſolv'd and decreed by Mr. vice-chancellor with the conſent of the heads of colleges, that, according to an antient interpretation made in this caſe, if any perſon after his admiſſion into any college of this univerſity, ſhall not continue the greateſt part of every term (excepting only the firſt and the laſt) during the whole time of his four years, he ſhall not be capable of being admitted to his degree with the reſt of his year, or have the time of his abſence accounted towards the accompliſhment of that required neceſſary for his firſt degree: and therefore the form of the grace for that purpoſe ſhall be in the ancient ſtile, Supplicat reverentiis veſtris, A. B. ut duodecim termini completi in quibus ordinarias lectiones audiverit (licet non omninò ſecundum formam ſtatuti) per majorem partem cujuſlibet termini, una cum, etc. But if the diſcontinuance of ſuch perſons ſhall be by the plague's being at Cambridge, or by the ſickneſs of himſelf, or any other neceſſity or lawful cauſe, then every perſon ſo abſent ſhall inſert in his grace exhibited to the univerſity for his degree, the time and cauſe of his abſence, and ſo commit the ſame to the good liking and approbation of the univerſity.

Furthermore, whereas it hath been formerly decreed, that the maſter of every college ſhall exhibit to the vice-chancellor for the time being, a liſt or catalogue of the chriſtian and ſurnames of all ſuch, who in their reſpective colleges ſhall be approved of to be preſented to the vice-chancellor and the univerſity, in order to admiſſion to their firſt degree, before the firſt congregation that ſhall be after the ſaid approbation:

It was, on the day and year above-mentioned, reſolv'd and decreed by Mr. vice-chancellor and the heads of colleges before ſpecified, that ſuch a catalogue under the hands and ſeals of the maſters of the ſeveral colleges, or in their abſence, under the hands and ſeals of their preſidents, deputies, or vice-gerents, ſhall for the future be duly preſented to the vice-chancellor for the time being, at the time appointed; in which liſt ſo preſented, the ſaid maſters, or in their abſence, their preſidents, deputies, or vice-gerents ſhall ſignify and atteſt, that the perſons, whoſe names are therein contained, have all continued in the univerſity according to the tenour and meaning of this interpretation and decree, as appears to them, after a diligent and faithful examination made by themſelves, or their order, of the tables, books of commons, or ſtewards books, or ſuch other regiſters, which in their reſpective colleges can give true teſtimony in that matter.

Scholars not to appear but in their proper habits.

1681. IT is ordered and decreed by the vice-chancellor and heads of colleges, that none reſiding in the univerſity under the degree of maſter of arts, upon any pretence whatever, appear publickly either in or out of colleges in morning gowns, or any other, but what by order and cuſtom of the univerſity belong to their degree and ſtanding on pain of being proceeded againſt as diſobedient and contumacious.

For reſidence of ſtudents in law and phyſick.

1694. IT is decreed and reſolv'd by Mr. vice-chancellor and the heads of colleges, that no grace for the degrees of bachelors of law or phyſick be admitted of for the future, except for ſuch only as have made their reſidence in ſome college the greater part of nine ſeveral terms at leaſt, and that ſuch reſidence be atteſted under the hand and ſeal of the maſters of the colleges concern'd, or their deputies, as in the caſe of bachelors of arts.

Of compounders.

IT is interpreted and determined by the vice-chancellor and heads of colleges, that eccleſiaſtical preferments that are not rated or mentioned in the book of firſt-fruits, be rated according to their reputed value, and as they are or may be lett or rented.[a] 1728.

Of cautions and quarterly payment of bills.

WHereas it appears by experience that many inconveniences have ariſen both to tutors and pupils for want of due payment of quarterly bills, and by reaſon of pupils trading with unlicenſed perſons, and without order of their tutors; for the remedying theſe inconveniences, it was decreed by Mr. vice-chancellor, with the conſent of the heads of colleges in the conſiſtory, 1721.

I. That every fellow-commoner before he is admitted into commons, ſhall put in a caution of — 25*l.* 0. 0.
Every penſioner ——— ——— 15. 0. 0.
Every ſizar ——— ——— 10. 0. 0.
This caution to be depoſited into ſuch hands as ſhall be agreed upon by the college. this caution to remain in ſuch hands 'till the ſaid fellow-commoner, penſioner or ſizar leave the college, and diſcharge all debts to the college and tutor, and then to be returned.

II. That every perſon in ſtatu pupillari ſhall fully diſcharge every quarter's bill, before the end of the next ſucceeding quarter, or ſooner, if the ſtatute, decree or local cuſtom of any particular college require it; and unleſs the tutor do own ſuch diſcharge before the maſter of the college or his locum-tenens, ſuch perſon ſhall immediately be ſent out of the college.

III. That no perſon be admitted to have his grace paſs in any college for any degree, until he bring a diſcharge under his tutor's hand of all debts, for which his tutor is reſponſible, to the end of the foregoing quarter, to the maſter and thoſe that are concerned to paſs his grace.

All perſons concerned are hereby required to take notice, that no tutor is reſponſible for any debts of his pupils, but what are contracted by his expreſs order; and if any perſon adventure to truſt any ſuch pupil, beſides the loſs of the debt,[a] he is liable to ſuch further puniſhment as the laws of this univerſity direct.

Againſt reſorting to taverns.

1728. IT is ordered and decreed by Mr. vice-chancellor and the heads of colleges upon interpretation of part of the ſtatute de modeſtia et urbanitate morum, that if any ſcholar ſhall at any time reſort to any tavern or other publick houſe, otherwiſe than the ſtatutes do allow, he ſhall forfeit 1*s.* and 8*d*; if after the ſtatutable time of locking the gates 3*s.* and 4*d*; if at a more unſeaſonable hour or diſordered in liquor, he ſhall beſides the other penalties be admoniſhed by the vice-chancellor. which admonition ſhall be entered in a book kept for that purpoſe; and after three admonitions be expelled.

That if any number of ſcholars under pretence of being of the ſame year, ſchool, or county, or otherwiſe, ſhall be found aſſembling together at any publick houſe, they ſhall upon conviction thereof, beſide the former penalty of 3*s.* and 4*d.* be ſuſpended from taking any degree till one whole year after the uſual time of taking the ſame.

That if any member of the univerſity of what degree ſoever ſhall by any pretended power or authority offer to protect any ſcholars from the inſpection or correction of the proctor in any publick houſe; or if he himſelf at the inſtance of the proctor, or his repeated admonition, ſhall not civilly depart, he ſhall be looked upon as a contemner of diſcipline and contumacious, and be proceeded againſt accordingly.

[a] Such debts as theſe are no ſtatutable objection to any one's degree.

Extracts

Extracts from Kings letters.

1. IT is his Majeſty's pleaſure that all that take any degree in the ſchools do ſubſcribe to the three articles.[a] James I. 1616.

2. That all ſtudents do reſort to the ſermons at St. Mary's, and be reſtrained from going to any other church in the time of St. Mary's ſermons.

3. That ſcholars be carefully reſtrained from haunting town houſes, eſpecially in the night.

4. That all ſcholars both at chapel and at the ſchools keep their ſcholaſtic habit.

5. That there be a ſermon and communion on every Chriſtmas, Eaſter, and Whitſunday on the forenoon in the ſeveral colleges, from which no member of any college ſhall be permitted to abſent himſelf, unleſs upon ſome juſt and neceſſary occaſion, to be approved of by the maſter and dean of the college for the time being.

6. That the laudable cuſtom of coming to chapel in ſurplices and hoods according to their degree upon the accuſtomed days, be obſerved by all the maſters, fellows, ſcholars and ſtudents of all colleges.

That all ſuch, of what degree or condition ſoever, as ſhall contemn their ſuperiors, or miſbehave themſelves either in word or deed toward the vice-chancellor, or the proctors, or any other officers of the univerſity, eſpecially in the executing their office be ſeverely puniſhed. Charles I. 1629.

That the exerciſe of candidates for the degree of bachelor of phyſic be hereafter according to that for the ſame degree in law, ſave only that they ſtill ſtand bound to one oppoſition as formerly. Charles II. 1681.

Whereas it has been repreſented unto us, that the proviſion already made by ſtatute for the due performance of exerciſes required in order to the degree of Charles II. 1683.

maſter of arts, hath not proved ſo effectual as was to be deſired, we have thought fit to make and eſtabliſh this following order to be obſerved by all whom it may concern as a ſtatute for the future. that is to ſay, that every ſenior or middle bachelor of arts appointed to reſpond or declaim in the bachelor's ſchools by the combination to be made for that purpoſe, and ſigned by the vice-chancellor and ſenior proctor for the time being, not performing his duty in the courſe allotted him therein, ſhall be puniſhed 20*s*. and moreover ſtand obliged under the ſame penalties to perform the ſame on the next uſual day for ſuch exerciſe, and ſo from time to time, till he ſhall have actually performed it, or elſe be excuſed upon juſt and neceſſary cauſe to be allowed and approved of by the vice-chancellor and the ſenior proctor for the time being, and the maſter of the college to which ſuch perſon doth belong. which method of proceeding we will have alſo to take place, and be duly obſerved, as to the exerciſe of oppoſing in thoſe ſchools; ſaving that the puniſhment for the neglect thereof ſhall be but 10*s*. to be repeated as we have above directed.
